[[SPEC ignore="true"]]

HƯỚNG DẪN BỘ THẺ (TAG) — DÀNH CHO NGƯỜI ĐỌC

Mỗi thẻ nằm trên một dòng riêng, thuộc tính đặt trong dấu ngoặc kép. Tên thẻ trong phần mô tả dưới đây được viết KHÔNG kèm ngoặc vuông để tránh parser hiểu nhầm là thẻ thật.

Thẻ	Thuộc tính bắt buộc	Ý nghĩa
DOC	version, schema, total_questions, exam_type, parts	Bọc toàn bộ file; khai báo phiên bản schema và tổng số câu.
META	key, value	Thẻ tự đóng, mô tả thuộc tính đề thi: title, time_limit_minutes, hint_language, source...
SPEC	ignore="true"	Khối hướng dẫn cho người đọc — parser bỏ qua toàn bộ.
PART	n, questions, shuffle_questions, shuffle_options	Một phần của đề (5, 6, 7) kèm chính sách hoán vị mặc định.
GROUP	id, part, questions, passage, shuffle_questions	Nhóm câu hỏi gắn với một bài đọc; dùng cho Part 6 và Part 7.
PASSAGE	id, type, shuffle	Nội dung bài đọc (văn bản và/hoặc hình ảnh). type: article, e-mail, form, notice, survey, invoice, estimate, advertisement, press-release, text-message.
IMAGE	src, alt	Thẻ tự đóng, nhúng ảnh cắt từ đề gốc (biểu mẫu, tin nhắn, hoá đơn...). Tên file nằm trong thư mục images/.
Q	n, part, shuffle_questions	Một câu hỏi. Với Part 5 (câu độc lập) đặt shuffle_questions="yes" ngay trên thẻ Q, không cần GROUP.
OPT	key	Một phương án trả lời. key là A/B/C/D — định danh cố định, không phải vị trí hiển thị.
ANS	key	Đáp án đúng, trỏ tới key của OPT. Nhờ vậy khi hoán vị phương án, đáp án vẫn đúng.
HINT	lang	Gợi ý / giải thích cho người học (tiếng Việt).
ANSWER_SHEET	ignore="true"	Bảng đáp án cho người đọc — parser bỏ qua.

Quy ước nội dung:

1. Chỗ trống trong câu được đánh dấu bằng đúng bảy dấu gạch ngang: ------- ; ở Part 6 chỗ trống kèm số câu, ví dụ ------- (131).

2. Mỗi câu có đúng 4 phương án và đúng 1 đáp án, 1 gợi ý.

3. shuffle_questions nhận ba giá trị: yes (câu độc lập — Part 5), group (hoán vị cả nhóm, giữ bài đọc đi kèm — Part 6/7), no.

4. Khi hoán vị phương án, ứng dụng đổi vị trí hiển thị nhưng giữ nguyên key; chấm điểm bằng cách so key người học chọn với ANS.

5. Parser phải bỏ qua mọi khối có ignore="true" (SPEC và ANSWER_SHEET).

E-mail — Reminder

To: All Staff
From: Asta Lindstrom
Subject: Reminder
Date: 11 April

To All Staff:

This is a reminder that the water in the Tolliver building will be temporarily shut off tomorrow at 8 a.m. while repairs are completed. I understand that most employees who work in the building will be off-site at a software training session and will not be affected.

For those of you who will be working in Tolliver tomorrow, the Hillcrest Water Department has assured me that the water will be off for no more than four hours. We will provide complimentary bottled water in the lobby for all staff during this time. The cafeteria will remain closed until the water has been turned on again. At that point meal service and food sales will resume. I apologize for the inconvenience.

New Exhibition at Sydney's Carlisle Art Museum

SYDNEY (3 June) — The Carlisle Art Museum's latest exhibition, Deep Waters, will open on 15 June. The exhibition will feature 38 realist and abstract paintings portraying the beauty and vastness of the world's oceans. All the works were created by Australian artists based in Sydney, and among them will be six by the critically acclaimed oil painter Harold Bernstein.

The exhibition will run until 15 July. Tickets are $10. Museum visitors may view the exhibition between 9 A.M. and 4 P.M. on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, and between 2 P.M. and 9 P.M. on Fridays and Saturdays. On each day of the exhibition, at least one of the artists will be present and available to answer visitors' questions about the creative process. Mr. Bernstein will be available on 30 June only.

On 23 July, the exhibition will open at the Muriel Art Gallery in Melbourne, where ocean-themed paintings from Melbourne artists will be added to the collection.

May 5 — Boston law firm Warner and Ames announced this morning that it is merging with the Philadelphia law firm Hamilton Jones to create Warner, Hamilton, and Associates. With more than 655 attorneys, the merger will make this the largest law firm in the northeastern United States.

"This is a welcome merger of two well-managed firms who share similar corporate cultures and philosophies," said Andrea Warner, codirector of the former Warner and Ames, who will serve as managing partner of Warner, Hamilton, and Associates. "Our combined expertise makes Warner, Hamilton, and Associates uniquely placed to provide clients even higher levels of counsel and service. We look forward to continuing our practices in Boston and Philadelphia and expect to open yet another office in Hartford within the next twelve months."

According to a press release, Ms. Warner has garnered attention through her representation of clients across the country in prominent cases involving workers' rights, equal pay, and social justice.

The firm expects to keep all of its current lawyers and staff and will "combine management teams made up of partners from each firm to ensure a seamless transition," the release said.

E-mail — Food Photography Article

To: maria.bellandini@pweb.net
From: thomas.mclaren@delicatessenmag.com
Date: Tuesday, October 2
Subject: Food Photography Article

Dear Ms. Bellandini:

I have some news regarding your article that is scheduled to be published in the next issue of Delicatessen Magazine. — [1] —. Yesterday, we learned that a major advertiser canceled their contract with us, and as a result, we will have to reduce the number of pages in our upcoming issue. This is extremely unfortunate, but we just do not have enough money without these ads to publish the magazine in its current format. — [2] —.

We know that readers have enjoyed reading about your experiences in Italy. — [3] —. While your eight-page story about working as a food photographer is excellent, in order to fit in the slimmer issue, it will need to be cut by about thirty percent. Although I sincerely hope you agree to having your article published in our upcoming issue, I will understand if you would rather have the article published in full at a later time. However, I have to let you know that the magazine industry is not always the most stable business, and for this reason, I do not know if there will be space for your story in the future. — [4] —.

Please let me know as soon as possible what you would like to do. Should you agree to edit the story, I will need the new version by Monday.

Best regards,
Thomas McLaren, Editor-in-Chief

E-mail — Parking area reassignment

To: staffmailinglist@coltonmedical.org
From: Melvin Myers <mmyers@coltonmedical.org>
Date: June 10
Subject: Parking area reassignment

Dear Colleagues:

I just want to remind everyone that crews will begin construction on the new Colton Medical Nutrition Center on June 18.

Effective June 15, parking areas F and G will be closed until August 20, when construction is expected to be completed. Staff currently assigned to park in areas F and G will be given temporary "guest" parking stickers and must park in the guest-parking garage. The Property Maintenance Office will place stickers in staff mailboxes by 4 P.M. today. The sticker should be displayed on the driver's side window of the vehicle.

A construction access road will be created by closing the entrance and exit roads to parking areas F and G. This will also block access to the security building and the pond. However, a temporary alternative entranceway to those locations will be created. To help eliminate excessive traffic, please visit those places only when absolutely necessary. Take note that the Information Center at the main entrance will remain open during construction.

Please e-mail me directly with any questions regarding parking stickers.

Sincerely,
Melvin Myers
Property Maintenance

Notice

WELCOME TO COLTON MEDICAL CAMPUS INFORMATION CENTER
PLEASE CHECK IN BEFORE PROCEEDING

ATTENTION STAFF:
PARKING AREAS F & G CLOSED UNTIL SEPTEMBER 10

Staff members who normally use these areas and who have not yet received a temporary parking sticker should request one at the security station. A valid access card and staff I.D. are required.

Cars will be immediately towed away if parked next to pedestrian areas, including all walkways, temporary rest areas, and construction tents.

Owners of cars parked in the garage without a sticker displayed on the window will be fined $25 per day.

Security officers are available to assist you.

Dear Ms. Torres:

Thank you for taking the time to complete a survey about your recent experience at Woodruff's. We appreciate that so many people took the time to provide us with feedback since it helps us to improve the quality of our service.

We were happy to learn that your overall experience shopping at Woodruff's was a positive one. However, we were sorry to see that you shared one area of dissatisfaction with a significant proportion of the customers who responded to the survey. I want you to know that we are taking the survey results seriously. We plan to improve this area with training soon.

As an apology for our failure to meet high standards in all areas, I have attached a voucher for 15% off a future purchase (good for one year) at any of our three Clarksville locations. We look forward to serving you in the future.

Subject: October order

Dear Mr. McGivern,

I received my October order, but there were some errors. I received 20 dinner plates instead of 40, and seven water goblets arrived with cracks in the glass. Have you switched shipping carriers recently?

I have been a loyal customer since you opened five years ago, and never before have I experienced problems with an order. Incidentally, you might like to know that I spoke this morning with Ed Salek, owner of nearby Salek's Cafe. He mentioned that his last delivery from you had some mistakes too.

How soon can you fix my order? I have three parties coming up next week, so I need these items quickly.

Sincerely,
Deshauna Jacques

Dear Ms. Jacques,

I was very sorry to learn about your order, and about Mr. Salek's as well; I will extend my apology to him today. You are a valued customer, and I am embarrassed that you received such a poor shipment. We are in the middle of moving to a new warehouse, and it has not gone as smoothly as I had hoped. Regardless, I want to make amends as soon as possible.

I have put in an order to correct the mistakes, and I hope you will accept a 15 percent discount on your next shipment. Just use code 150 when placing your order.

Please let me know if there is anything else I can do to correct this.

Yours sincerely,
Pete McGivern

Subject: Permits

Dear Mr. Nunez:

I'm writing concerning the job in my dining room that I'd like to contract you for. I'd like work to begin on April 10, but after looking at the estimate you sent me, I have a question about your calculation of the total cost. Specifically, does your estimate take into account any permits that would be needed for the job? A colleague told me that there is an ordinance that went into effect last month requiring building permits for any renovation project. I really liked the job you did installing carpeting and painting in my living room last year, and I would prefer to work with a company that I know. However, I am on a tight budget, so I need to consider the charge for the building permit in the overall cost of the project. Could you please get back to me at your earliest convenience?

Sincerely,
Jenny Choi

Article — Cardiff Daily Times

Cardiff Daily Times — In Brief — 20 March

As reported earlier this year, Gold Kettle Grocery is opening an additional regional distribution centre in Cardiff. Construction was postponed for a time because of an unanticipated problem related to the ground conditions on the site. However, the problem has been resolved, and the 40,000-square-metre centre should be fully operational in June. The grand opening is planned for the fourth of June. The warehouse has a special area with state-of-the-art equipment to store foods that need to be kept frozen or cool. The site will also include loading bays and offices.

The distribution centre is expected to create more than 400 new jobs, according to Myles Simler, vice president of operations. Because of the size and scope of the project, a variety of jobs will be needed, from warehouse loaders and drivers to clerical positions.

Dear Myles:

Thanks for giving me a lift to the grand opening earlier this month. I do not believe I have ever seen such a well-planned event. We should send Ping Chen something to show him our appreciation for organising it.

Now that the centre in Cardiff has been open for a few weeks, I think we should consider hiring a company that forwards automatic notifications to employees' mobile phones. Such a service would allow us to get messages to them quickly and also prevent mistakes with shipments. I have a contact who has worked in customer service at Calls For You. I think it's a good company, but Raven Notifications also looks good, and their rates are lower. I have attached information about both companies to help you decide which one we might use. Let me know what you think.

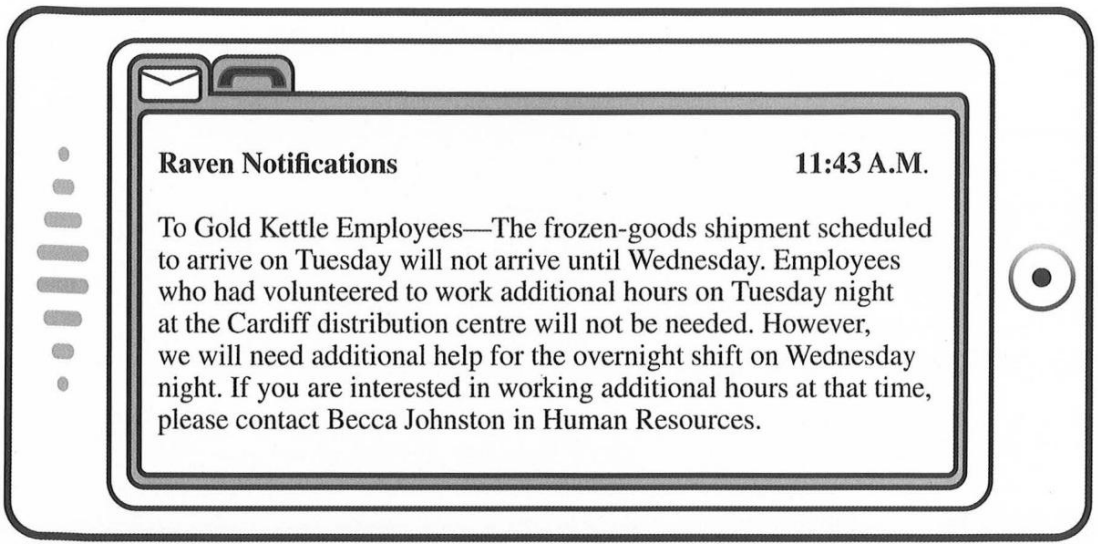

Sincerely,
Raadhika Baral

Raven Notifications — 11:43 A.M.

To Gold Kettle Employees—The frozen-goods shipment scheduled to arrive on Tuesday will not arrive until Wednesday. Employees who had volunteered to work additional hours on Tuesday night at the Cardiff distribution centre will not be needed. However, we will need additional help for the overnight shift on Wednesday night. If you are interested in working additional hours at that time, please contact Becca Johnston in Human Resources.
